

Name:

Grade: Sixth

Subject: Economy Personal Finance

Standard	Unsatisfactory	Partially Proficient	Proficient	Advanced
Economy	Student shows limited understanding that saving and investing are key components to financial well-being through their presentation.	Student describes how saving or and investing are components to financial well-being through their presentation.	Student describes how saving and investing are key components to financial well-being through their presentation.	Student describes how saving and investing are key components to financial well-being for both individuals and communities through their presentation.